

Tuula Teeri

Tuula Teeri is President of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Sciences (IVA) with previous positions at VTT Technical Research Centre, Finland and the KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden, and as the founding President of Aalto University, a merger of three universities in technology, business, and design.

She has been Board member of Swedish and Finnish research institutes, foundations, and research councils as well as of Evaluation and Advisory Committees of academic institutions in Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland, Germany, Singapore and for the European Commission.

Tuula Teeri is a pioneer of forest industrial biotechnology and the development of biomimetic materials. She is fellow of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences, Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Sciences and Technology Academy Finland and cofounder of SweTree Technologies, Sweden.