

Joos Vandewalle

Electrical engineer and until October 2013 full professor, Department Electrical Engineering, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium.

His research interests are in mathematical system theory, control, signal processing, cryptography, and neural networks.

Fellow of IEEE, IET, EURASIP and member Academia Europaea.

In 2017 and 2018 president of KVAB, the Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium for Science and the Arts.

Currently chairperson of the permanent reflection group of KVAB on Responsible Research & Innovation and Science Ethics, member of the Board of Euro-CASE, ambassador for Open Science at the KU Leuven and chairperson of the LERU Open Science ambassadors group.